

INTERNET ACCESS PERMISSION LETTER TO PARENTS

With your permission, your child has access to electronic communication known as the Internet. The vast domain of information contained within Internet's libraries can provide unlimited opportunities to students.

Students will be able to access the Internet through their issued individual student account. Individual student accounts and electronic mail addresses may be issued to students. Internet/e-mail is to be used for educational purposes only - no private/personal messages will be allowed to be sent or received.

Students will be expected to abide by the following network etiquette:

- Internet access is only to be used for educational purposes.
- The use of the network is a privilege and may be taken away for violation of board policy or regulations. As a user of the Internet, students may be allowed access to other networks. Each network may have its own set of policies and procedures. Students will abide by the policies and procedures of these other networks.
- Students will respect all copyright and license agreements.
- Students will cite all quotes, references, and sources.
- Students will only remain on the system long enough to get needed information.
- Students will apply the same privacy, ethical and educational considerations utilized in other forms of communication.
- Students should adhere to the following guidelines regarding e-mail and social networking sites:
 - a. E-mail and social networking sites can only be used for educational purposes - no private/personal messages are allowed to be sent or received.
 - b. Students cannot use non-school issued e-mail accounts while at school without teacher permission.
 - c. Use of objectionable language is prohibited.
 - d. Students accessing Internet services that have a cost involved will be responsible for payment of those costs.
